

70: Tom
from: Mr. K.

Visual Effects Society Holds First Board of Director Elections
 The Visual Effects Society, Sherman Oaks, recently held its first elections, filling 15 director seats and three alternate positions. Previously, the 30-member board and six alternates had been appointed.
 Re-elected directors are: Glenn Campbell, Art Durnsied, Ray Feeney, Mark Galvin, Rocco Gioffre, Charlotte Huggins, Dennis Muren, and Ken Ralston. New directors are: Robert Abel, Peter Anderson, Craig Barron, Phil Feiner, Jeff Okun, Clay Pinney, Art Repola, Doug Smith, John Van Vliet, and Joe Viskocil.
 Returning directors who were not affected by the election are: Ed Carmull, Darren Chucky, Harrison Ellenshaw, Jonathan Eland, Michael Fink, Richard Hollander, Adam Howard, Marty Kline, Todd Masters, Jim Morris (Society Chair), Janet Muswell, Tom Pace Carlsensen, Carl Rosenbahl, Scott Ross, Alison Savitch, Bill Taylor, R.T. Taylor, and Craig Weiss.
 By next January, the Society plans to have a fully elected board of 30 directors and six alternates. Bylaws require that 15 directors and three alternates stand for election each year.

The Newsmagazine for Electronic Designers and Print Buyers

NEWS

March 1999

NATIONAL EDITION FEATURES
N1 FOCUS ON PDF. Acrobat 4.0 offers set of neat features for graphics professionals and power users.
N6 APPLICATION SPOTLIGHT: GOVERNMENTAL. Public sector designers cope with strict budgets, policies.
N14 HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE REVIEWS. Epson PhotoPC 750Z, Blue G3 Power Mac, Dreamweaver 2.

Publishing

A Cymus Publication

FOCUS
 Adobe Acrobat 4.0

APPLICATION SPOTLIGHT

MICRO
 Southern California

10th ANNIVERSARY